“As a fan of superhero films myself, it’s great to see IMDb fans eagerly anticipating the upcoming lineup of films and TV shows based on their favorite Marvel and DC characters,” said Nikki Santoro, Head of IMDb Consumer. “I’m especially psyched to see so many female-driven titles among the top ranks, including Black Widow, She-Hulk and Ms. Marvel, as well as (Academy Award-winning) director Chloe Zhao's Eternals. IMDb makes it easier than ever to keep current on all of the most anticipated titles with our Streaming Guides and Watchlist features, which help track what, when and where to watch."

"IMDbPro rankings have proven to be a keenly accurate predictor of movies and TV shows poised to have a heroic impact on our culture, and we are pleased to see Marvel and DC fans and industry professionals continuing to turn to IMDb and IMDbPro to learn more about these upcoming movies and series as well as the stars and creators," said Matt Kumin, Head of IMDbPro. "We congratulate all the professionals involved in bringing these movies and series to life and eagerly look forward to more deeply exploring the Marvel and DC universes when these projects premiere."

Additional insight into trending movies, TV shows and professionals is available to IMDbPro (<http://www.imdbpro.com>) members through its exclusive STARMeter and MOVIEmeter rankings.
