

Introducing IMDb Is Obsessed—a New Podcast Exploring the Most Binge-Worthy TV Show or Movie Each Week

The podcast trailer is now available at <http://imdb.to/IMDbIsObsessed>; first episode premieres December 3

IMDb Is Obsessed joins other popular IMDb original video and podcast series that help fans decide what to watch

SEATTLE—November 23, 2021—IMDb (www.imdb.com), the world's most popular and authoritative source for movie, TV, and celebrity information, is expanding its original content offerings with the launch of its newest podcast, IMDb Is Obsessed, on December 3. The weekly series will turn the spotlight on the one TV show or movie that IMDb insiders and fans are completely obsessed with—and why it should be on everyone's IMDb Watchlist. Leveraging IMDb metadata and recommendations from the #1 movie website in the world, entertainment enthusiasts can trust IMDb experts to help them discover new films and TV series. The podcast joins other popular IMDb original series, making it easier for fans to decide what and where to watch, including Movies That Changed My Life, IMDbrief, and What to Watch.

Check out the IMDb Is Obsessed trailer here, ahead of the premiere on December 3.

Each week IMDb podcast co-hosts Lizzie Bassett and Alex Logan will share with fans why they are fanatical about a trending title, where to watch it, and provide behind-the-scenes info on the cast and creators, as well as a curated list of what to watch next. From time to time, experts from IMDb and other podcasts will join them to be part of the conversation, sharing the TV shows and movies they are most passionate about. Listeners can tune in to today's episode of Movies That Changed My Life to learn more about the films that inspired and impacted IMDb Is Obsessed co-hosts Bassett and Logan.

"IMDb Is Obsessed takes a look at what's trending with IMDb insiders and its audience of hundreds of millions of passionate fans," said Nikki Santoro, head of IMDb Consumer. "In addition, our hosts and special guests infuse each episode with insight, humor, and recommendations for new and classic TV shows and movies for fans to add to their IMDb Watchlists."

Fans can listen to IMDb Is Obsessed beginning December 3 on Amazon Music and wherever podcasts are available, including by clicking the "Listen on Amazon Music" button on The IMDb Is Obsessed IMDb title page: <https://www.imdb.com/title/tt15793532/>. Listeners can see updates about this and other popular IMDb original podcasts, including Movies That Changed My Life, at www.imdb.com/podcasts and by following IMDb social media channels including Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram. IMDb users can add the TV shows and movies discussed each week, as well as other films, series and podcasts, to their IMDb Watchlist at www.imdb.com/watchlist, and explore info on thousands of the most popular podcasts listed on IMDb at https://www.imdb.com/search/title/?title_type=podcast_series.
