

SHOW THE WORLD WHAT YOU'RE MADE OF

Bring visibility and credibility to your sustainability efforts with robust third-party certification.

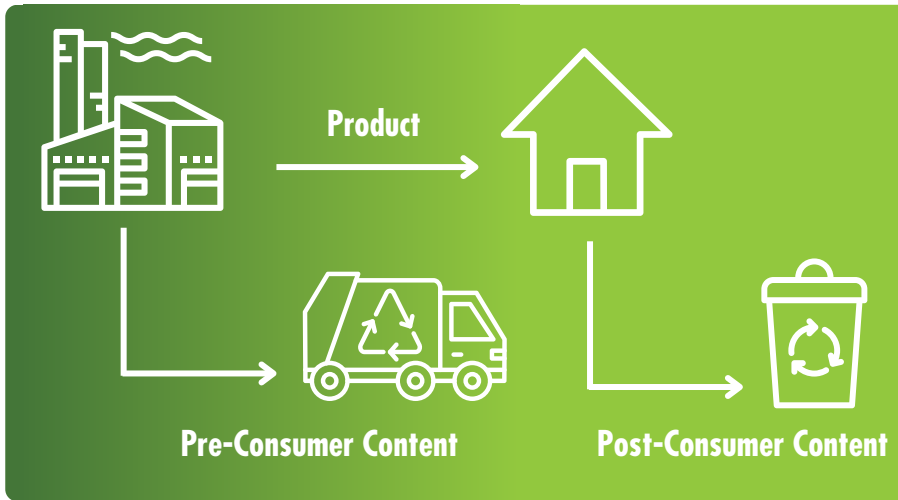

Recycled Content Certification

Recycled content is comprised of pre-consumer and/or post-consumer material that is used as a raw material in the manufacturing of products.

This certification verifies sources of recycled materials and distinguish recycled content by pre- and post-consumer content within the supply chain based on ISO 14021 definitions and Federal Trade Commission (FTC) requirements of recycled content.

*Product must contain 50% recycled content to qualify for Amazon Climate Pledge Friendly.
