

IMPORTANT HEALTH PRECAUTIONS

PERSONS WITH IMPLANTED MEDICAL DEVICES SHOULD:

- Keep the product more than 20 centimeters away from their medical device when the product is turned on.
- Never carry the product in their breast pocket.
- Use the wrist opposite the implanted medical device to minimize potential for RF interference.
- Do not wear the product if you notice any interference.