Apple will provide warranty service through one or more of the following options:

(i) Carry-in service. You may return your Product to an Apple Retail or Apple Authorized Service Provider (“AASP”) location offering carry-in service.

(ii) Mail-in service. If Apple determines that your Product is eligible for mail-in service, Apple will send you prepaid waybills and applicable packaging material, so that you may ship your Product to an Apple Repair Service (“ARS”) or AASP location. Apple will pay for shipping to and from your location if instructions regarding the method of packaging and shipping the Product are followed.

(iii) Do-it-yourself (DIY) parts service. DIY parts service allows you to service your own Product. If DIY parts service is available in the circumstances, the following process will apply.

(a) Service where Apple requires return of the replaced Product or part. Apple may require a credit card authorization as security for the retail price of the replacement Product or part and applicable shipping costs. If you are unable to provide credit card authorization, DIY parts service may not be available to you and Apple will offer alternative arrangements for service. Apple will ship a replacement Product or part to you with installation instructions, if applicable, and any requirements for the return of the replaced Product or part. If you follow the instructions, Apple will cancel the credit card authorization, so you will not be charged for the Product or part and shipping to and from your location. If you fail to return the replaced Product or part as instructed or return a replaced Product or part that is ineligible for service, Apple will charge your credit card for the authorized amount.

(b) Service where Apple does not require return of the replaced Product or part. Apple will ship you free of charge a replacement Product or part accompanied by instructions on installation, if applicable, and any requirements for the disposal of the replaced Product or part.

(c) Apple is not responsible for any labor costs you incur relating to DIY parts service. Should you require further assistance, contact Apple at the telephone number listed below.

Service options, parts availability and response times may vary according to country. If you require service in a country where Apple does not maintain an Apple Retail Store or Apple Authorized Service Provider (“AASP”), (a list of current service locations is provided at <http://support.apple.com/kb/HT1434>), service options may be limited. If a given service option is not available for the Apple Product in such country, Apple or its agents shall notify you about any additional shipping and handling charges which may apply before rendering service. Where international service is available, Apple may repair or replace Products and parts with comparable Product and parts that comply with local standards.

If any term is held to be illegal or unenforceable, it shall be severed from this warranty and the legality or enforceability of the remaining terms shall not be affected.
