

Flameless Tea Lights and 12 Bonus Luminary Bags User Guide

This guide is for the Frux Home and Yard Flameless Tea lights with Luminaries available at:

<https://www.amazon.com/gp/product/B00GKX9RFU/>

These 24 flameless tea lights feature a warm LED light and realistic flicker that is nearly impossible to distinguish from natural candlelight in low light conditions! These LED tealight candles are also the only ones available with 12 star-cut out white Luminary bags. These flameless tea light candles are battery operated, with pre-installed CR2032 lithium batteries that allow you to instantly enjoy all the benefits of real candlelight without any of the drawbacks of a real flame.

General FAQ:

1- How Long will these lights last?

Answer: Our 24 included CR2032 lithium button cell batteries last longer than using traditional tea candles. These 80-hour batteries are economical and long-lasting, keeping your space illuminated and beautiful – no matter what.

2- How many Luminaries come with each order?

Answer: Our Tea lights with Luminaries come with 12 Bonus Luminary Bags. 2 tea lights per luminary make the luminaries glow and flicker beautifully.

3- Do the tealights come with a remote control?

Answer: No, we do not offer a remote control with our tealight set. Each flameless tealight comes with a on/off switch located at the bottom.

4- Are the Luminaries Waterproof?

Answer: No, our luminaries are not waterproof and will not hold in extreme weather but are coated with flame resistant material - we still strongly recommend that you use our flameless tea lights with the luminaries for safety.

What Our Customers Say About Us

★★★★★ Excellent choice for luminaries

I purchased these tea lights to make a luminary pathway to my entrance for a New Year's Eve party. I turned them on the afternoon of December 31, and they are still burning brightly over 96 hours later in my garage (I decided to leave them on because they looked cool). They have a flickering effect that mimics real flames. I definitely recommend these tea lights if you are looking for the effects of flames without the dangers inherent with real fire.

★★★★★ Natural flicker closely resembles a real flame.

I tried several different ones and agree with what others have said about these... they have a flicker that looks most natural. Others seem more to rhythmically pulsate. These have a more random flicker that looks more like a true flame. Of course, none of them look like a real candle flame if you look at the bulb. But if they are hidden in a colored votive or a luminaria bag, they are very nice.

Also, I liked the sturdy and easy to use on/off switch. Changing the batteries was much easier than with other brands.

★★★★★ Perfect for our outdoor deck/pool area this summer!

I love this tea light set! These will be perfect for this summer for fancying up our pool/deck area for outdoor parties and hosting friends/family! We live outside in the summer, so I take such joy in fancying it up, and these are perfect!
