Who We Are: PetSafe® Brand leads the pet industry in the development of innovative products to help improve relationships between pets and their owners. Our products include pet fencing systems, bark control solutions, remote trainers, pet doors, harnesses, head collars, treats, toys and a variety of food, water and waste management systems. We're headquartered in Knoxville, Tennessee, but our company spans across the U.S. and 52 countries—six continents total!

Our process begins with building a team of passionate pet lovers who work together to develop products that enhance the relationship between pets and their owners. We conduct in-home tests and put every product through real world conditions to perfect every detail. With the insight of the world's top trainers, veterinarians and behaviorists, our products stand alone in excellence and value.

Where We Came From: In 1991, Radio Systems® Corporation (the parent company of the PetSafe Brand) sold 3,000 units of the first do-it-yourself containment system in the first 30 days of business and a million dollars of product in the first six months. Over the last 25 years, we have expanded from a handful of associates with one product to hundreds of associates working on dozens of innovative solutions. All PetSafe products are designed to give pet owners the best experience possible with their pets.

How We Work: From the beginning, our founder, Randy Boyd, infused the company with his spirit of collaboration, innovation and a drive to enhance the human-animal bond. Setting the tone with a casual work environment and no private offices, PetSafe Brand is a relaxed, relationship driven workplace where we bring our pets to work every day. Bringing our pets to work inspires what we do and drives our product development. We end every day "dog tired" from logging extra hours to ensure pets everywhere are happy, safe and enjoying the best quality of life possible. We wouldn't have it any other way!

Pet Fencing

at-a-glance

Your pets love to run and play. This may also include chasing cars, roaming the neighborhood or even running away. You can help protect your pets from straying from your yard with a PetSafe® Wireless Fence or In-Ground Fence™ System.

Installing a pet containment system will cost you far less time and money than installing a traditional fence. And most of our systems include a surge protector for added resilience.

Give your cat the freedom to be outdoors without worrying about her straying from your yard.

The In-Ground Cat Fence provides an area for your cat to enjoy outside, while curbing your cat's curiosity and keeping her safe in your yard. The system includes a receiver collar made just for felines with an easily adjustable nylon strap for a more comfortable fit and a section that stretches to ensure your cat's safety. This system will support an unlimited number of pets, as long as each one is wearing a PetSafe® In-Ground Fence™ receiver collar, allowing protection of cats and dogs on the same system.

Avoidance at-a-glance

Protect your home from curious paws with PetSafe® pet barriers. Pet barriers create wireless avoidance zones around household hazards ranging from trash cans to counter tops. To use, simply place the barrier near the area you would like your pet to avoid, and adjust the boundary to fit your needs.

PetSafe Brand creates barriers designed to work discretely inside your home and outside. For example, our Pawz Away® Outdoor Pet Barrier is camouflaged as a rock to blend in with landscaping, and our Pawz Away Mini Pet Barrier has a compact design to fit anywhere in your home.

Bark Control

at-a-glance

Dogs need some time when it's OK to bark and just be a dog, however, there are times when our dog's barking can be excessive. A bark control device helps quickly teach dogs when it's appropriate to bark and when to hold the chatter.

Replacement Activated Carbon Filters

The replaceable carbon filter removes bad tastes and odors from the water, keeping it fresh. The filters in our fountains contain activated carbon derived from organic coconut shells. The carbon filter works by removing impurities from the water, which keeps the water clean, clear and fresh. Each piece of granulated carbon has thousands of microscopic holes, which collect and bind with impurities in the water to keep them from recirculating. The filter also catches large particles and debris and keeps them from returning to the water.

Replacement Foam Filters

Drinkwell® Foam Filters help keep the water cleaner by catching large particles and debris before they reach the pump, enhancing overall filtration. Foam filters extend the life of your pump and help maintain your fountain's flow rate in between cleanings. Replace foam filters once a month for optimal fountain performance; change more frequently for multi-pet households.

Feeders

at-a-glance

Choosing the right food for your pet is important for good health, but how you feed your pet is equally important. PetSafe® Brand offers two different methods for feeding. Gravity food stations are very convenient and great for pets that can manage their own eating habits and do not overeat. For those pets that need help with portion control or owners with busy schedules, our automatic feeders are a great way to simplify your pet's feeding routine.

Waste Management at-a-glance

Pet waste management doesn't have to be a hassle. With waste management solutions from PetSafe® Brand, cleaning cat litter or potty training your dog becomes easy and mess-free.

The ScoopFree® and Simply Clean® Self-Cleaning Litter Boxes have revolutionized the way consumers view owning a cat. These automatic litter boxes do all of the work so that scooping litter becomes a thing of the past. Working around the clock to keep waste out of sight while trapping odors, these litter boxes keep homes smelling fresher and looking cleaner. PetSafe Brand also offers a variety of dog potty solutions, like the Pet Loo™ and Piddle Place™, that make potty training and taking care of bathroom breaks much easier and cleaner. For any accidents, we have also created a full line of enzyme cleaners to eliminate odors and stains.

Make bathroom time a better experience with waste management solutions from PetSafe Brand.
